

COLOGNE INTERNATIONAL FORUM: NEWSLETTER

JANUARY 2025

SALON in collaboration with the CHL, 22 Nov 2024. Photo: Cologne International Forum

FUNDING LINES

New Project Selection

The Academic Board of the Cologne International Forum has selected three new tandem projects and one new cluster:

Tandems:

Inclusive pedagogy in music education: A comparison of the perspectives of teachers across primary and special education schools in Germany and Türkiye

Dr. Gözde Özenc Ira (Hacettepe University, Turkey) & Dr. Theresa Stommel/ Dr. Lukas Bugiel (Faculty of Human Sciences, UoC)

Disrupted Community Involvement? Chances in Civic Engagement

Across Life Events

Dr. Kasimir Dederichs (Nuffield College, Oxford University, UK) & Dr. Ansgar Hudde (Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences, UoC)

Energy Transition in the ECOWAS: Interactions Between Technology Law and Decarbonization Strategies

Dr. Dennis Agelebe (Jindal Global Law School, India) & Prof. Dr. Kirk Junker (Faculty of Law, UoC)

Cluster:

EnviroLink: Linking Research, Education, and Technology in Interdisciplinary Environmental Sciences

Cluster Director: Prof. Dr. Christina Bogner

All project details can now be found at <https://cif.uni-koeln.de/projects>.

New call for tandem collaborations:

More details at <https://cif.uni-koeln.de/grants>

PROJECTS

Weaving Memories

The Cologne University Magazine published an article about our Tandem project: <https://cif.uni-koeln.de/projects/innovative-tandem-collaboration-2023-24-omrani-pfeifer>.

Arjang Omrani at our SALON, 25 Nov 2024. Photo: Cologne International Forum

EVENTS

SALON

Join us for the final SALON event of the semester:

A Humboldt Lecture by Mulu Hundera, Ethiopian scholar specializing in entrepreneurship, strategic management, and gender studies
“Family Support in Female Entrepreneurship: Perspectives from a Developing Country”

The lecture will be translated into German Sign Language and, as all SALON events, will conclude with wine, water, and snacks.

For more information and registration: <https://cif.uni-koeln.de/events/salon>.

Date & Location: 29 January, 6 PM, International House, Kringsweg 6, 50931 Cologne.

Perspectives: New Event Series

With Perspectives, the Cologne International Forum introduces its new event series in collaboration with the At-Risk Scholar Support of the University of Cologne. Perspectives events will focus on topics dealing with the complex experiences of exile and migration and also spotlight specific crises and explore how societies deal with migration and ongoing transformation.

Next Event: 27 January, 4-5:30 pm (hybrid), Prof. Dr. Claus Leggewie (em./KWI Essen): “Erweiterte Demokratie: Für ein Parlament der Dinge” Registration is required: <https://cif.uni-koeln.de/events>.

Special Event in collaboration with ZADIK: Art and Cultural Goods in Circulation

Date & Location: 10-11 March, International House, Kringsweg 6, 50931 Cologne.

Business records of auction houses are rarely accessible to the public but offer unique research data - especially for private sales, where they often represent the only sources for changes of ownership. This symposium focuses on the Hauswedell & Nolte archive. The event, and especially the podium discussion at the evening of 10 March, is open to the public.

More information and registration: <https://cif.uni-koeln.de/events>

BEHIND THE SCENES

Recap: Natasha A. Kelly's SALON Lecture

We've published a recap of Natasha A. Kelly's recent SALON lecture: <https://cif.uni-koeln.de/cif/interviews-stories/black-studies-vergangenheit-gegenwart-und-zukunft>