

COLOGNE INTERNATIONAL FORUM: NEWSLETTER

JULY 2024

Nira Liberman at her SALON lecture »Can Poor Access to Internal States Explain Obsessive-Compulsive Tendencies?«
Photo: Cologne International Forum

EVENTS

Looking Back, Looking Forward

This semester we hosted various insightful events including our SALON series.

During the summer break, we will post our reflections on them on X.

We are excited to share that our first SALON-speaker of the upcoming winter semester will be Natasha A. Kelly, speaking on Black Studies at German Universities.

More information and a link to registration can be found here.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Meet our Contributors

Discover the individuals who help shape the Cologne International Forum here.

News from our International Research Cluster

The project team has made a great short documentary, that invites us to accompany them to their feedback workshop, held in Bafoussam/Cameroon. Discover more on our website.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

New Tandem Selection

Three of the the five Innovative Tandem Collaborations 2024/25 have been selected. You can find them here, further information on them will be provided in the upcoming weeks.

Applications for two other Tandem projects and the International Research Cluster remain open until August 31. For more details, please see here.

Tandem partners Mert Koçak and Elifcan Çelebi at the »Migration, Care and Digitalization« workshop with partipants.
Photo: Cologne International Forum

INTERVIEWS

Interview with Humboldt Fellow Marileen La Haije

We talked to Marileen La Haije about her research on »Artistic Practices of Mental Health and Human Rights Activism in Latin America« .

Read about her motivation, her collaboration with the University of Cologne and her engagement within the intersection of arts, mental health, and human rights. Access the interview here.